PUBLIC COMMENTS

John Shelton – Wanted to remind everyone that we are in the business of our kids. We've been trying to make this school district work and have been doing so. We thank the Board for their diligence to try to make this thing work and just want to remind everybody there are lives at stake, not only here for the kids but also for the City.

Karen Miah – I understand that we need school supplies so I need to elaborate a little more as to what we need. According to the student, what they need, the teachers need copies and can't get copies, so doing these supplies, what do we need?

Karen DeShullo – The principal secretary just needs to put a requisition in for the supplies needed.

Ms. Miah – so you are saying to me just because...that we need paper, pens, pencils, we are fully stocked, supplied, is that what you're saying to me?

Ms. DeShullo – I can't speak to that, but they can put the purchase order request in and they can order it, so if they don't have them, they need to order the supplies.

Peter Barsz – There is a process that each of the Principals is able to utilize and the process is what the secretary will do. They will send a purchase order to the Business Office and they will get ordered.

Ms. DeShullo – The Purchasing Secretary will actually place the order.

Ms. Miah – And is that turnaround quicker than my request for cheerleading uniforms? What is that turnaround?

Ms. DeShullo – a lot quicker than that, ma'am.

Ms. Miah – a lot quicker? OK. Just wanted to let you know, I never received a key for the locker room. Mr. Shannon is not here now so we can't blame him.

Unknown audience member – Yes we can!

Mr. Barsz – we will check into that.

Ms. Miah – and the Keystone test results for the High School?

Andria Saia – Last years?

Ms. Miah – I was just talking to my cheerleaders and STEM has theirs and the girls had mentioned at the High School that they didn't receive their results. Honestly, they just mentioned it to me so I just wanted to bring that to someone's attention so someone can find out.

Mr. Barsz – we will look into that.
